To whom it may concern,

The health, safety and wellbeing of Building Trades of Alberta members have always been top priorities for our organization. Since the onset of COVID-19, those priorities have only been amplified.

We're proud to work with companies that are taking precautions and following the recommended protocols of health professionals to keep workers safe during this unprecedented time.

That's why BTA is pleased to support Inter Pipeline and its continued operation during COVID-19.

Inter Pipeline is taking the proper safeguards and practicing procedures that help ensure BTA members and others it employs stay healthy.

We feel confident Inter Pipeline will continue to practice the measures suggested by officials to keep workers safe as we all push through the next days, weeks and months ahead.

Sincerely,
